  - (g) the governing board members of the charitable organization will be able to exercise proper management of the administration of the charitable organization;
  - (h) the administrative and operations management policies and procedures of the applicant are sufficient to ensure proper management of the charitable organization;
  - (i) the activities planned by the applicant are sufficient to further the applicant's charitable purpose; and
  - (j) any other prescribed matter.

(5) Subject to paragraphs (2), (3) and (4), the Authority shall determine the application submitted under paragraph (1) within thirty working days from the date of receipt of the application, and where satisfied with the merits of the application, grant the approval for registration as a charitable organization and issue a certificate of approval in accordance with section 16(7) of the Act.

(6) Where the Authority refuses to grant the approval for registration as a charitable organization, the Authority shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons therefor and the applicant's right of appeal conferred by section 37 of the Act.

Prohibitions on the use of certain names, etc.

4.—(1) Except with the approval, in writing, of the Authority, a charitable organization that is not registered under the Act shall not—

- (a) use any name, title, word, term or grammatical presentation that represents or implies that the organization is a registered charitable organization;
- (b) use, in relation to the name, title or designation of the organization the words “Foundation” and “International”; or

- (c) use any name, title or designation of the organization that is Wholly in a foreign language.
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)—
  - (a) an organization may use the word “Foundation” if—
    - (i) the organization is self-funded by an individual, family or for profit company to aid the organization’s intended charitable purposes; or
    - (ii) the organization is financed by an endowment;
  - (b) an organization may use the word “International” if the organization has activities in service of achieving its charitable purpose that are done outside Jamaica.

Certificate of Approval. 5.—(1) A certificate of approval issued by the Authority under section 16(7) of the Act shall—

- Second Schedule.
- (a) be in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule;
  - (b) specify the period for which it is valid, being a period not exceeding two years; and
  - (c) be subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified in the certificate of approval.

(2) The Authority shall provide the Registrar with a copy of each certificate of approval issued.

Application for renewal of registration. 6.—(1) A charitable organization may apply for renewal of registration, by submitting to the Authority a completed application in accordance with the form set out in the Third Schedule within—

- Third Schedule.
- (a) sixty days prior to the expiration of the certificate of approval; or
  - (b) one hundred and eighty days after the expiration of the certificate of approval.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a non-refundable renewal fee of five thousand dollars; and
- (b) all supporting documentation as would be required on the original application for registration, other than any documentation expressly exempted by the Authority from time to time for the purpose of renewal.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), the Authority shall determine an application submitted under paragraph (1) within fifteen working days from the date of receipt of the application and shall take into account the factors required under these Regulations to be taken into account on the original application.

(4) Where amendments have been made to—

- (a) the constitution of the charitable organization;
- (b) the management structure, including the membership of the governing board since last notified to the Authority; and
- (c) any matter affecting the tax compliance status of the charitable organization, the Authority shall forward a copy of the application submitted under paragraph (1) to the Commissioner General.

(5) On receipt of the application pursuant to paragraph (4), the Commissioner General shall review the application and indicate, within thirty working days from the date of receipt of the application, whether he objects to the renewal of registration of the charitable organization.

(6) If the Commissioner General objects to the renewal of registration of the charitable organization he shall state the reasons for the objection.

(7) The Authority may subject to paragraphs (3) and (5)—

- (a) approve the renewal of registration of the charitable organization; or
- (b) refuse to approve the renewal of registration of the charitable organization.

(8) A certificate of approval issued under this Regulation may include such terms and conditions as the Authority thinks fit, including any terms and conditions not included on the original certificate of approval or a subsequent renewal thereof.

(9) Where the Authority refuses to renew the registration of the charitable organization, the Authority shall notify the organization, in writing, stating the reasons for the refusal and of the right of appeal conferred by section 37 of the Act.

PART III.—Protected Charities

Designation of protected
charities.

7.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where a registered charitable organization is at an increased risk of being misused or exploited, the Minister may designate, in writing a registered charitable organization to be a protected charity and shall cause notice of such designation to be given to the registered charitable organization that is the subject of the designation and the Authority.

(2) The designation by the Minister of a protected charity under paragraph (1) shall be made on the recommendation of the Authority after the carrying out of the relevant risk assessment and inter-agency consultation with—

- (a) the Designated Authority;

- (b) the Commissioner of Police;
  - (c) the Tax Administration of Jamaica; and
  - (d) any other relevant department, agency or public body engaged in co-operation, co-ordination and information exchange with respect to combating money laundering, terrorist financing and other financial crimes.

(3) The recommendation referred to in paragraph (2) shall be made if the Authority has reasonable grounds to believe that—

- (a) a registered charitable organization is vulnerable and likely to be at a high risk of being misused for the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes; and
- (b) the detection, prevention and mitigation of the high risk referred to in sub-paragraph (a), requires the implementation of more stringent protective measures.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(a), the Authority in assessing the level of risk of a registered charitable organization, shall consider the increase in risk of misuse associated with the following—

- (a) a registered charitable organization received charitable donations from or provided funding to a listed entity;
- (b) a registered charitable organization received charitable donations from—
  - (i) an entity in a high risk jurisdiction and there are identified strategic deficiencies within the registered charitable organization that require resolution;
  - (ii) an entity in a jurisdiction that is bordering a conflict zone resulting in an increase in the risk of the registered charitable organization being misused for the commission of money laundering, cross-border terrorist financing or other financial crimes; and
  - (iii) politically exposed persons requiring the implementation of more stringent anti-money laundering, counter-terrorism financing and due diligence measures to mitigate the increased risk associated with donations from politically exposed persons;
- (c) the governing board members responsible for the management of the registered charitable organization acted in contravention of the Proceeds of Crimes Act or the Terrorism Prevention Act;

- (d) a person connected with the registered charitable organization is established or resides outside of Jamaica or is a politically exposed person;
  - (e) the work for which the registered charitable organization receives donation is done in a conflict zone or is work which exposes the registered charitable organization to an increased risk of being misused for the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes;
  - (f) the income, assets and size of the registered charitable organization;
  - (g) the frequency and amount of charitable donations received from outside Jamaica by the registered charitable organization;
  - (h) the information provided by a donor organization, or the failure or refusal of a donor organization to provide the information requested under paragraph (5); and
  - (i) the registered charitable organization's non-compliance with the provisions of the Act and these Regulations.

(5) The Authority may, in writing, request information from an organization which—

- (a) the Authority has determined is a source of information for identifying and assessing the nature, threat and level of risk of a registered charitable organization being misused or exploited; and
- (b) makes charitable donations for the funding of projects of registered charitable organizations, and the donor organization, upon receipt of a request under this paragraph, shall provide the Authority with the requested information, in such manner as may have been specified in the request made by the Authority.

Regulatory controls by protected
charities.

8.—(1) A protected charity shall establish and implement such programmes, policies, procedures and controls to—

- (a) detect, prevent or mitigate the risk of being misused for the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes;
- (b) prevent being exploited as a conduit for the financing of terrorism and the evasion of asset freezing or seizing measures;
- (c) to prohibit the fraudulent diversion of charitable donations intended for legitimate charitable purposes to the financing of terrorism; and
- (d) to prevent the protected charity from receiving charitable donations from or providing funding to a listed entity.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), the measures referred to in that paragraph shall include—

- (a) the establishment of identity verification procedures to obtain information to confirm the identity, credentials and good standing of—
  - (i) donors who provide the protected charity with charitable donations;
  - (ii) beneficiaries of charitable donations to the protected charity;
  - (iii) any associate charitable organization, including the governing board members of the associate charitable organization; and
  - (iv) the governing board members of the protected charity;
- (b) the development of systems to monitor listed entities to ensure that the protected charity has not accepted from or made available charitable donations to a listed entity and otherwise has not dealt or is not dealing with any such listed entity;
- (c) the establishment of transaction verification procedures in accordance with regulation 11;
- (d) the development of internal reporting procedures to identify and report to the Designated Authority transactions suspected of—
  - (i) constituting or being related to the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes; and
  - (ii) involving the receipt of charitable donations from or the provision of funding to a listed entity;
- (e) the establishment of record-keeping procedures in accordance with regulation 16;
- (f) the establishment of accounting and financial reporting procedures in accordance with regulation 16(4);
- (g) the establishment of programmes for the training of employees on a continuous basis in accordance with regulation 17;
- (h) arrangement for the conduct of annual independent audits by an auditor who is a registered public accountant or Chartered Accountant to ensure that the measures as aforesaid are being implemented; and
- (i) such other protective measures as may be specified by the Authority.

(3) For the purpose of this regulation, a protected charity shall nominate an officer of the protected charity who performs management functions to be responsible for—

Fourth
Schedule.

- (a) overseeing the implementation of and compliance by employees with the programmes, policies, procedures and controls referred to in paragraph (1); and
- (b) making reports to the Designated Authority in accordance with the form set out in the Fourth Schedule, including the reporting of transactions that are suspected of constituting or being related to the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes.

(4) A protected charity that fails to comply with paragraph (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction, in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

(5) For the purposes of these Regulations a transaction is suspected of constituting or being related to the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crime where—

- (a) the protected charity is unable to verify the transaction or establish the identity of the principal donor or agent of the donor in relation to any particular donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction in accordance with the transaction verification and identification procedures in regulation 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15;
- (b) the transaction involves the receipt of charitable donations from or the provision of funding to an entity declared to be listed entity under section 14(4) of the Terrorism Prevention Act; or
- (c) the transaction involves the receipt of charitable donations from an entity in a high risk jurisdiction.

Procedures to prevent the commission of financial crimes.

9.—(1) No protected charity shall form a donor-recipient relationship, or carry out a one-off transaction, with any donor, unless the protected charity—

- (a) maintains the following procedures in relation to that donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction—
  - (i) identification procedures and transaction verification procedures in accordance with regulations 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15;
  - (ii) record-keeping procedures in accordance with regulation 16;
  - (iii) internal reporting procedures in accordance with regulation 18;

- (b) takes appropriate measures from time to time for the purpose of making its employees, whose duties include the handling of the protected charity's financial business and the implementation and monitoring of compliance with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing due diligence procedures aware of—
    - (i) the procedures under sub-paragraph (a) which relate to donor-recipient relationships and one-off transactions; and
    - (ii) the provisions of the Act and these Regulations;
  - (c) provide such employees, with training in accordance with regulation 17.

(2) A protected charity that fails to comply with paragraph (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

Verification of donor identity and update of donor information.

10.—(1) Identification procedures maintained by a protected charity under regulation 9(1)(a) are in accordance with this regulation if such procedures require that—

- (a) before receiving charitable donations from a prospective donor or agent authorized to act on behalf of the donor, for the purposes of establishing a donor-recipient relationship or a one-off transaction—
  - (i) the donor or agent authorized to act on behalf of the donor shall submit to the protected charity—
    - (A) in the case of a donor that is an individual proof of identification such as—
      - (i) a passport;
      - (ii) a driver's licence issued by the country of residence;
      - (iii) national identification card; or
      - (iv) any other form of government issued identification accepted by the protected charity;
    - (B) the donor's taxpayer registration number or foreign taxpayer identification number issued by the donor's jurisdiction of tax residence;

- (C) a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation or Certificate of Registration obtained from the Companies Office of Jamaica and any other international registry of companies (as the case may be), in the case of a donor that is a body corporate;
  - (D) a description of the principal line of business;
  - (E) a copy of the licence or approval to operate, where the principal line of business is one that falls under a regulatory or supervisory authority;

the transaction from which the charitable donations were derived including but not limited to, a certified copy of a property sale agreement, Grant of Probate and Will or Share Purchase Agreement, in the case of charitable donations not contained in a bank account; and

- (ii) the protected charity takes such measures (as are specified in its identification procedures) as will verify the donor's identity;
  - (b) where the protected charity is unable to verify the donor's identity, the intended donor-recipient relationship or the one-off transaction in question shall not proceed and the protected charity shall refuse to accept the donor's charitable donations;
  - (c) as concerns any donor-recipient relationship, donor information is updated—
    - (i) at least once in every five years during the course of the donor-recipient relationship; and
    - (ii) whenever there is any doubt about the veracity or adequacy of previously obtained donor information; and
  - (d) where donor information is not updated as required under subparagraph (c) as a result of the donor's failure to notify the protected charity of any change to the information or provide to the satisfaction of the protected charity verification of any change, the donor-recipient relationship in question shall not proceed any further and the protected charity shall return any donations received and refuse to accept any additional donations from the donor.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)—
- (a) the protected charity shall carry out reasonable due diligence procedures concerning donor information and reasonable risk assessment of money laundering or terrorist financing; and
  - (b) evidence that such procedures and risk assessment have been carried out shall be sufficient to the satisfaction of this regulation.
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4), a protected shall—
- (a) confirm the identity, credentials and good standing of its beneficiaries and associate charitable organizations;

- (b) document the identity of their donors; and
  - (c) ensure that the information relating to the donors be treated with confidentiality and made available upon the request of the Authority.
- (4) Paragraph (3) applies in any of the following circumstances—
- (a) the protected charity receives donations in an amount in total of more than five hundred thousand dollars; or
  - (b) the protected charity receives donations from international donors.
- Transaction verification procedures. 11.—(1) Transaction verification procedures maintained by a protected charity are in accordance with these Regulations if such procedures require that—
- (a) as concerns any donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction, the protected charity takes such measures (as specified in its transaction verification procedures) as will produce satisfactory evidence as to the purpose and intended nature of the donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction in any of the circumstances specified in paragraph (2); and
  - (b) where such evidence is not obtained, the donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction in question shall not proceed any further.
- (2) The circumstances referred to in paragraph (1) are as follows—
- (a) where transactions carried out in a single operation or in several operations appear to be linked;
  - (b) where a transaction is carried out by means of any wire transfers;
  - (c) where there is any doubt about the veracity or adequacy of previously obtained evidence of a donor's identity; and
  - (d) where the protected charity is required to report to the Designated Authority transactions that are suspected of constituting or being related to the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes.
- Procedures regarding a body corporate donor. 12. For the purposes of regulations (10) and (11), where a donor to a protected charity is a body corporate—
- (a) any person charged with receiving the donation shall carry out reasonable due diligence procedures (including the procedures referred to in regulation 15(1)(c)(ii) concerning the identification of the body corporate and transaction verification; and
  - (b) evidence that such procedures have been carried out shall be sufficient to the satisfaction of this regulation.

Electronic funds
transfer.

13.—(1) Where a wire transfer or any other electronic funds transfer is conducted by or in respect of a protected charity, the person conducting the wire transfer or other electronic transfer shall ensure that the protected charity receives and includes in its records, accurate and relevant information on funds transfers including the correct name, address, tax identification number and account number (if any), of the persons involved and the instructions given in relation to the transfer.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), “persons involved” means—

- (a) the holder of the account that is the source from which the funds are transferred;
- (b) the person that places the order for the transfer of the funds; and
- (c) every recipient of the funds transferred.

(3) A protected charity that fails to comply with paragraph (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction, in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

Identification
procedures
regarding transactions on behalf of another.

14.—(1) This regulation applies where, in relation to any donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction, a person is, or appears to be an agent of a donor.

(2) Identification procedures maintained by or in respect of a protected charity under regulation 9(1)(a) are in accordance with this regulation if, in a case to which this regulation applies, reasonable measures are required to be taken in relation to the management of the protected charity for the purpose of—

- (a) establishing the identity of the principal donor and the agent; and
- (b) verifying that the agent is authorized to act on behalf of the principal donor.

(3) In determining for the purposes of paragraph (2), what constitutes reasonable measures, regard shall be had to all the circumstances of the case and, in particular, to the identification best practice and due diligence procedures employed by or in respect of a protected charity and which is applicable to those circumstances.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (3), if the conditions mentioned in paragraph (5) are fulfilled in relation to an agent (whether the principal donor is undisclosed or disclosed for reference purposes only) it shall be reasonable to accept a written assurance from the agent to the effect that evidence of the identity of any principal donor on whose behalf the agent may act in relation to any donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction has been obtained and recorded under procedures maintained by the agent.

(5) The conditions referred to in paragraph (4) are that, in relation to the donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction in question, there are reasonable grounds for believing that—

- (a) the agent is based or incorporated in, or is formed under the law of, a country in which there are in force in relation to the agent provisions at least equivalent to those mentioned in regulations 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 21; and
- (b) the agent—
  - (i) is a person to whom the provisions of regulation 9(1) would apply if the agent was situated in Jamaica; and
  - (ii) acts in the course of a business in relation to which a foreign regulatory authority exercises regulatory functions and control in respect of the provisions referred to in sub-paragraph (a).

(6) An agent acting on the behalf of a principal donor shall disclose to the protected charity whether the principal donor has been declared to be a listed entity under section 14(4) of the Terrorism Prevention Act.

(7) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with paragraph (6) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months.

supplementary provisions.

15.—(1) For the purposes of these Regulations, evidence of identity is satisfactory if—

- (a) it is reasonably capable of establishing that the donor to the protected charity is the person the donor claims to be;
- (b) the protected charity is reasonably satisfied, in accordance with the identification procedures maintained under these Regulations, that such evidence establishes the fact that the donor is the person the donor claims to be;
- (c) in the case of any transaction involving—
  - (i) a settlement, trust or other type of legal arrangement, it establishes the identity of the settlor, legal owner or other person who exercises effective control of the legal arrangement, as the case may require, and the beneficial owner; and
  - (ii) a body corporate, it establishes the identity of each director, member or shareholder (if any) and includes in the case of an incorporated body, evidence of incorporation.

(2) For the purposes of regulation 10, in determining the period within which satisfactory evidence of the identity of the donor is to be obtained in relation to any particular donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction, all the circumstances shall be taken into account, including, in particular—

- (a) the geographical locations of the donor; and
- (b) whether it is practical to obtain the evidence before commitments are entered into between the protected charity and the donor or before any charitable donations are transferred to the protected charity.

Record-keeping procedures.

16.—(1) Record-keeping procedures maintained by or in respect of a protected charity under regulation 9(1) (a) are in accordance with this regulation if the procedures requires the keeping of a record for the prescribed period in accordance with paragraphs (2), (3), (4) and (5).

(2) Where evidence of the identity of a donor is obtained under procedures maintained in accordance with regulation 10, 11, 12 or 14 a record shall be kept in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) The record referred to in paragraph (2) shall indicate the nature of the evidence and shall—

- (a) comprise a copy of the evidence;
- (b) provide such information as would enable a copy of it to be obtained; or
- (c) in a case where it is not reasonably practicable to comply with subparagraph (a) or (b), provide sufficient information to enable the details as to a donor's identity contained in the relevant evidence to be re-obtained.

(4) In relation to charitable donations made to a protected charity, the governing board members shall cause to be established and maintained proper accounting records to demonstrate that all charitable donations received and all monies disbursed by or from the protected charity for the financial year have been used in a manner consistent with the protected charity's purpose, objective and activities.

(5) The accounting records referred to in paragraph (4) shall include—

- (a) entries recording all charitable donations received during the financial year of the protected charity;
- (b) entries recording all monies disbursed by or from the protected charity for the financial year;

- (c) audited financial statements of the protected charity for the financial year of the protected charity which shall include—
- (i) a statement of income and expenditure of the protected charity for the financial year and the matters in respect of which the income and expenditure relate;
  - (ii) a balance sheet showing the assets, liabilities and funds of the protected charity at the end of the financial year of the protected charity;
  - (iii) a statement of cash flow; and
  - (iv) explanatory notes providing description of the nature and extent of donor-imposed restrictions and conditions on charitable donations reflected in the balance sheet;
- (d) the extent to which the amount of donations received has met any target set by or for the protected charity; and
- (e) the period during which the protected charity is approved to receive tax deductible donations.

(6) Where a protected charity is approved by Commissioner General to collect tax deductible donations for a limited period or of a limited amount, the governing board members shall cause to be maintained separate accounting records for charitable donations received.

(7) For the purposes of this regulation, the prescribed period is a period of not less than seven years commencing on the date on which the relevant transaction was completed or the donor-recipient relationship was terminated, whichever occurs later.

Training.

17.—(1) The governing board members of a protected charity shall cause its employees including relevant officers within six months after the date of commencement of employment and every two years thereafter, to receive training—

- (a) on the requirements and procedures for compliance of the operations of a protected charity with the provisions of the Act and these Regulations;
- (b) in the recognition and handling of transactions—
  - (i) carried out by or on behalf of a listed entity; or
  - (ii) suspected of constituting or being related to the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes; and

- (c) in the identification of potential vulnerabilities in the administration of protected charities to the risks of the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes and the measures to be undertaken to protect against such activities;
- (d) in corporate governance and financial transparency; and
- (e) in risk management and financial control procedures.

(2) For the purposes of these Regulations, an employee of a protected charity is, considered as a relevant officer of the protected charity if, at any time, in the course of his duties—

- (a) the employee has, or may have, access to any information which may be relevant in determining whether any person is engaged in the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes; or
- (b) the employee participates in implementing and monitoring compliance with anti-money laundering or counter-terrorist financing requirements.

(3) A person who provides services to a protected charity as an unpaid volunteer is deemed to be a relevant officer of the charitable organization if, at any time in the course of the volunteer's duties, he has or may have access to any information referred to in paragraph (2) (a), or participates in implementing and monitoring compliance referred to in paragraph (2)(b).

(4) A person who contravenes paragraph (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Parish Court, to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months.

Internal reporting
procedures.

18. Internal reporting procedures maintained by a protected charity shall include provisions—

- (a) for identifying an officer of the protected charity in accordance with regulation 8(3) (in this regulation referred to as the nominated officer) to whom a report is to be made of any information or other matter which—
  - (i) comes to the attention of an employee handling the protected charity's financial business; and
  - (ii) in the opinion of the employee handling that business, gives rise to some knowledge or suspicion that another employee is engaged in transactions that could constitute or be related to the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes;

- Fourth
Schedule.
- (b) for requiring that any such report be considered in the light of all, other relevant information by the nominated officer, or by another person, acting on behalf of the nominated officer, for the purpose of determining whether or not the information or other matter contained in the report gives rise to such knowledge or suspicion;
  - (c) for any person charged with considering a report in accordance with paragraph (b) to have reasonable access to other information that may be of assistance to him and is available to the regulated business; and
  - (d) for any person charged with considering a report in accordance with paragraph (b) to make such reports to the Designated Authority in accordance with the form set out in the Fourth Schedule.

Operation of anonymous, fictitious and numbered accounts.

19.—(1) A protected charity shall not, in the course of any donor-recipient relationship or one-off transaction, permit any donor to conduct any transaction with the protected charity by means of a numbered account, an anonymous account or any account in a fictitious name.

(2) A protected charity that fails to comply with paragraph (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation—

“anonymous account” means any account for which the protected charity does not have such information as would, when subjected to the identification and transaction verification procedures required by these Regulations, constitute evidence of identity which meets the requirements of regulations 14 and 15;

“numbered account” means an account that is identifiable solely by reference to the number or numbers assigned to that account.

Authority to provide guidance for due diligence
procedures
and training.

20.—(1) The Authority in ensuring compliance with the FATF recommendations, shall provide guidance for the implementation of due diligence procedures and the training of governing board members, relevant officers and other employees of protected charities—

- (a) to prevent or mitigate the risk of the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes; and

- (b) for the proper administration and management of the protected charity in compliance with the provisions of the Act and these Regulations.

(2) The due diligence procedures and training referred to in paragraph (1) shall include—

- (a) identifying potential vulnerabilities in the administration of protected charities to the risks of the commission of money laundering, the financing of terrorism or other financial crimes and the measures that can be undertaken to protect against such activities; and
- (b) promoting transparency, accountability, integrity and public confidence in the administration and management of protected charities.

Application of standards to overseas branches and subsidiaries.

21.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the governing board members of a protected charity shall review the activities of its branches and subsidiaries situated outside of Jamaica so that the management and operations of the branches and subsidiaries are in compliance with the provisions of the Act and these Regulations.

(2) Where there is a difference in applicable standards under this Act and the standards of the jurisdiction in which any of the branches or subsidiaries of a protected charity are located, the protected charity shall cause its branches or subsidiaries to comply with the more stringent standard.

(3) Where a governing board member of a protected charity has notice of any instance in which any of its branches or subsidiaries of the protected charity situated outside of Jamaica is unable to conform to the standards, conduct and due diligence procedures under the Act or these Regulations, the governing board members having such notice shall cause—

- (a) enquiries to be made to determine the reason for the inability; and
- (b) the Authority to be notified of the inability of that branch or subsidiary of the protected charity to conform with the standards, conduct and due diligence procedures and the reason therefor.

(4) A person who fails to comply with paragraph (1) or (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction, in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

Non-derogation of Authority's power.

22. Nothing in these Regulations shall derogate from the power of the Authority under sections 21 and 22 of the Act to suspend or the revoke the approval for registration of a protected charity, where the protected charity fails to comply with any provision of the Act and these Regulations.

Appeal.

23. A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Authority in respect of a matter under these Regulations may appeal to the Tribunal in accordance with section 37 of the Act.

PART IV.—General Provisions with respect to Registered Charitable Organizations

Provisions
relating to a registered charitable organization.

24.—(1) Where an institution is a registered charitable organization—

- (a) any person appointed by the Authority to audit or examine (as the case may be) and review the control and management of the administration of the institution shall be allowed to audit or examine the management, operations, finances and accounts of the institution;
- (b) the institution shall not be used by a person for a purpose other than its charitable purpose; and
- (c) one or more officers of the registered charitable organization shall be designated to be a compliance officer with the responsibility to monitor the operations of the registered charitable organization for compliance with these Regulations.

(2) A person who contravenes paragraph (1) (a), (b) or (c) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months.

Use of donations.

25.—(1) Any donation that is accepted by or on behalf of a registered charitable organization shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(2) Any donation that is made to a registered charitable organization for a lawful purpose specified by its donor, shall be used for that specific charitable purpose.

(3) Where a donor has not specified the particular charitable purpose to which a donation made to a registered charitable organization is to be applied and the donation is—

- (a) a tax deductible, the donation shall be applied by the charitable organization in accordance with the charitable purposes of the organization; and
- (b) not tax deductible, the donation shall be applied by the charitable organization to any activity carried out by the charitable organization in fulfilment of its charitable purposes.

(4) Where a donation, or any part of it, is not applied in accordance with paragraph (3), the registered charitable organization shall—

- (a) refund the donation to the donor; or
- (b) use the donation for such other purpose as may be approved by the governing board members.

(5) Where a registered charitable organization refunds any tax deductible donation, or any part of it, to a donor under paragraph (4), it shall immediately notify, in writing, the Commissioner General of the refund.

(6) A registered charitable organization that fails to comply with paragraph (5) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars.

Duty to maintain donation records.

26.—(1) A registered charitable organization shall—

- (a) issue receipts for every donation received; and
- (b) keep a record of all donations that have been made to the charitable organization, which shall include—
  - (i) the receipt number;
  - (ii) the name of the donor;
  - (iii) the date on which the donation was received;
  - (iv) the type of donation received and the means by which it is received;
